

Homework Expectations by Subject

Each academic team may differ in the amount and frequency of homework in addition to when each teacher offers tutorials. However, it is important to know that your student should bring work home almost every night. If you are not seeing your student with homework, or if your student says he/she never has homework, his or her grades are most likely affected negatively. Following is a table of general team homework expectations:

Note: AP, Pre-AP, and College NOW classes have homework assignments EVERY DAY. See teachers' calendars/websites
