I Love My Librarian Award

I Love My Librarian!
2010 Award

Librarians in our nation's 123,000 libraries make a difference in the lives of millions of people everyday. Now is your chance to shine the spotlight on a librarian at your public, school, college, community college or university library!

Nominate Your Librarian!

Up to 10 librarians will receive $5,000 and will be honored at a reception in New York hosted by The New York Times.

Nominations open on August 2 and must be received by September 20, 2010.

Nominate a librarian, read about past winners, and learn more about the award by visiting www.ilovelibraries.org/ilovemylibrarian.

Winners will be notified by November 2010. In addition to the $5,000 award, winners will receive a plaque and a travel stipend to attend a ceremony and reception held in New York in December 2010. The winners' libraries will also receive a plaque. Winners will be profiled at www.ilovelibraries.org/ilovemylibrarian.

About the Award

The Carnegie/New York Times I Love My Librarian Award encourages library users to recognize the accomplishments of exceptional librarians. The awards program will demonstrate how librarians are improving the lives of the people in their communities.

The award is administered by the American Library Association with support from the Carnegie Corporation and The New York Times.
